Two authors have been removed from the authors' list.

Two authors, namely Amer Karnoub and Hajian Huang, are removed from the authors list of this article following an allegation that they are falsely indicating ETH Zurich as their affiliation on their publications. Despite several attempts to contact these authors, the journal and Editor have never received any response from them.

The publication of these authors with incorrect affiliation violates the authors' ethical guidelines. While Web of Conferences has investigated in line with the COPE guidelines, the corresponding author, Imad Antypas, agrees with the Publisher and Editor's decision.
