ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The International Conference on Newer Engineering Concepts and Technology (ICONNECT-2K23) provides an international platform to share wide knowledge among young researchers, academicians, students and delegates from various industries that will result in development of the personal and technical skills by sharing delightful knowledge. The conference will feature lectures from eminent personalities all around the world. Students and young researchers will have a unique chance to be acquainted with the latest innovative ideas.